SUNDAY AT THE FARM.

On Sunday mornings, years ago, when but a little lad,
I used to come to salt the sheep in this some field with dad.
The little clouds that floated 'round I thought were bits of wool;
The sky was blue as 'tis today and calm and beautiful.

Now dad is gone, and mother, too; they lie up on the hill
Just by that clump of popple trees beyond the old red mill;
For Time has kept a-creepin' on, and you and I are men.
And little Robbie thinks the thoughts that I was thinkin' then.

There's a brown thrasher in the tree that stands
there on the knoll.
Just hear the little tyke a-spillin' his immortal soul!
Our preacher says that man alone has got a soul,
but yet,
What pretty critters God has made, and loves 'em, too, I'll bet!

I know the city pretty well, I lived there once a while,
But I was the homesickest boy you'd meet in many a mile.
The very horses on the street looked sad, it seemed to me;
There wa'n't no colts a-friskin' 'round nor laubs
as I could see.

So when in June the breezes blew across the prairie West,
I packed my grip and told 'em I had got enough,
I guessed!
Of course there's city folks who keep their faith in God and usin', Though if they stay there all the while I don't see how they can!

We've had our troubles, wife and I, we buried little Dot;
Upon that slope we made her grave—a green and sunny spot;
And Death will never more to me seem terrible and grim,
Since I have seen my little girl a-smilin' up at Him.

And often now I come out here and get me down
a spell,
Where rustlin' leaves and wavin' grain seem whisperin', "All's well."
I wish that all who'd like to feel their dead are safe from harm
Could come out here and spend with me a Sunday at the farm.

GROWING RAPIDLY

Maccabees Tent Prospering in This City—Official Visit

Maccabees, a name assumed by the patriotic Hebrew Maitthias and his descendants, who resisted the persecution of the Jewish people by the Syrian King.

From this origin is founded the Order known as Knights of the Maccabees of the World, a fraternal Order joined together for social and mutual protection of widows and orphans of Sir Knights.

A few days ago Maysville Tent was visited by State Commander M. F. Elkin, and those who were fortunate enough to be present were gratified and instructed with his talk of the affairs of the Supreme Tent.

Although not generally known the Maccabees claim in numerical numbers to be the second largest Order in the world, and financially they claim to be the wealthiest.

The State Convention commences next Wednesday at Ashland, and Maysville Tent will be represented by two gallant knights.

The Tent in this city is having a rapid growth; a large class is now awaiting to be initiated.

MOST WORTHY WORK

Others Should Follow Example of the Rev. Father Jones

If the Rev. Father Jones of St. Patrick's Church had never done anything else, or if he should not enter upon another enterprise during his stay in Maysville, the work he has already accomplished in restoring the sacred plot where the dead of his congregation sleep, is sufficient to merit the admiration of everyone.

But, much as has already been done, Father Jones is not satisfied and will not be satisfied until this labor of love is finished; and to this end he has issued an appeal which should meet with a prompt and liberal response from each one to whom it is addressed.

His address is so replete with touching sentiment, and so applicable to the conditions existing—not in St. Patrick's Cemetery alone, but in the Maysville Cemetery as well—that THE LEDGER commends it to all concerned.

The Rev. Father writes—
To those who are interested in beautifying Saint Patrick's Cemetery at Washington,
Madison county, Kentucky:

The names, the memories, the homes of the dead are entrusted to the living. Shall we prove faithless to an honor so sacred?

Deep in every heart, lies the desire for remembrance, now and hereafter. Our palpable fulfillment of the trust toward our dead is evidenced by the beauty of their last home. Neglect is bitter in any aspect, but when linked to the memory of silent loved ones, it merges into cruelty. In life our all; in death, so soon forgotten!

We found Saint Patrick's Cemetery an aggregation of weeds and brambles. Neglected graves scarcely gave evidence of their consecrated outlines; unsightly hollows blemished the confines; tottering headstones made identification a prospective difficulty, and moss-grown drives accentuated the voice of forgetfulness.

Unflinching generosity and assiduous work have enabled us to grade the cemetery, restore old and open new drives, raise graves, strengthen wavering headstones, add five acres to the original plot, and clothe barrenness in bluegrass verdure.

But much remains to be done—Herculean tasks are not finished in a day. Among needed improvements, a sexton's house takes the precedence, while additional driveways, beautifying lots—yours among them—owned by persons not residents of this Parish, sodding new ground, new fencing, a receiving vault, and laying out a small lake are of equal importance.

We feel it is the desire of all, who have laid some tender association of the past in a lonely grave at Washington, to participate in a labor so truly one of love.

Therefore, we send this, not as a command,
—Love needs no dictation; not as a suggestion,
—Memory asks no reminder.

We make a simple statement—God's Acre, the home of your dead, is the suppliant to generosity.

Your response will represent a willing hand, and a loyal heart, uncalculated by separation, in-vulnerable to Time's mutations.

A donation is expected to aid me to complete this work. Respectfully yours in Christ,
Rev. P. M. JONES, Pastor.

AS A MATTER OF COURSE Many who deal with us once in a while buy goods away from from your purchases elsewhere you do from us? Now, "honor bright," do you derive the satisfaction after, such as coat sleeves and pants being exactly the proper length, and not bothered with returning goods to exchange on account of fit objections? No suit of clothes leaves our house unless we are completely satisfied with the fit. When we are, "you will be, too."

THIS WEEK WE PUT OUR CRASH COATS AND PANTS ON OUR COUNTERS! We have so

Russia's war with Japan has brought the Trans-Siberian Railway into prominence. This great road, comprising 5,995 miles, has cost the Russian Government at the rate of $81,326 per mile, or $487,549,370 in all. It is interesting to compare this cost with the cost per mile of American railroads having a mileage of between 5,000 and 6,000 miles:

	Cost Per Mile.
Trans-Siberian.....	$81,326
Union Pacific.....	80,380
Northern Pacific.....	59,257
Missouri Pacific.....	38,107
Great Northern.....	40,371

The figures appertaining to the American railroads are compiled from the total stock and bond capitalization, and the comparison thus arranged is entirely in favor of the American railroads. While the cost of the Trans-Siberian Railway is $81,326 per mile, the average cost of the four American railroads given is $54,681 per mile, or $26,645 per mile less than the cost of the Russian railroad.

The sinking of the Russian battleship Petropavlovsk by the Japanese turns out to have been a shrewd piece of strategy upon the part of Admiral Togo. Observing that each time the Russian ships left Port Arthur they went over an identical course, Togo countermined that course one black night, and the next time he drew the Russians out of the harbor he blew up the battleship and the Admiral.

GOOD SPIRITS.
Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver; and all the fine spirits ever made in the Bluegrass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred and one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower, the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size, 25c; regular bottles, 75c. For sale by Henry W. Ray, Postoffice Drugstore.

BRADLEY'S TRIUMPH!

Lexington Herald.

From the reports of the various Republican county conventions held on last Saturday, the triumph of Governor Bradley is assured. In a number of the counties resolutions were adopted instructing for both Governor Bradley and Mr. Yerkes, indicating either a desire not to take sides in that unfortunate and unnecessary personal controversy, or a suggestion that the quarrel ought not to be carried into the Convention. It was our judgment that whenever a fair test was made before the rank and file of the party, it would be found that Governor Bradley was the most popular and influential Republican in Kentucky; and our judgment has been justified. Mr. Yerkes has always been very strong with a certain element of his party, and has had its regard and esteem. But for years the party has recognized Governor Bradley as its most valuable leader—the one who had made more success for it than any other Republican in Kentucky.

Did not the leaders of the party in this county make a mistake in refusing to instruct for him? Was it not a mistake in Jordan Jackson? Would he not have been stronger at the State Convention if this county had acted as did Franklin and several other counties in which lived candidates for Delegate from the state—instruct for the home candidate and Governor Bradley?

The Republican Convention in 1897 nominated its candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals because he was an enemy of Governor Bradley; at the Convention of 1899 the opponents of Governor Bradley controlled the Convention. During the Administration of President McKinley Governor Bradley was persona non grata at the White House. The nomination of Colonel Belknap and the defeat of Mr. Augustus E. Willson were to defeat and humiliate Governor Bradley.

The Republicans might have held Kentucky after the elections of 1895 and 1896 if the party had not become divided and showed itself incapable of governing itself. And the defeat of Colonel Belknap was the natural and inevitable result of the miserable management and fierce and unwarranted quarrels among Republicans.

The merchant who wishes to reach people who buy goods, puts his advertisement in a paper that people read; the merchant who throws his money away, gives his advertisement to the fakir who promises to put it on a card and hang it up on a street corner.

Not less than 5,000 people read THE LEDGER 312 days in the year. This makes a total of 1,560,000 readers in a year.

Do you want your name and business repeated that often within the next twelve months?

ORIGINAL OWNER

Of the David Dye Property Was General Richard Collins

The incident of the stone court in the rear of the residence of Colonel David Dye in West Second street recalls the fact that of the many owners of that special plot was General Richard Collins, father of the brilliant and scholarly husband of Mrs. Laura Collins of Sutton street.

The first structure on the site was known as the Tavern House, then the Parker House and afterwards the Donohoe House.

It was originally conveyed by Town Trustees to William Montgomery and Thomas Alexander by authority of an act of the Virginia Legislature.

The original survey of Limestone contained 108 acres, laid off in lots containing one-half acre each.

Lot 47, on which the Opera-house now stands, was conveyed by the Town Trustees to the inhabitants of the city, and all money arising therefrom were to be turned over to the heirs of John Mays and Simon Kenton.

REDMEN'S CARNIVAL

Some of the Dolings Proposed for the Second Week in June

The Redmen's Powwow and Summer Carnival, under the auspices of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. R. M., will take place on the streets of Maysville the week of June 13th, and we should be prepared to entertain big crowds during that week. This promises to be the only big event of the year, and there will be something doing from early morn to late at night.

For entertainment the Robinson Amusement Company will furnish fourteen high-class shows and six of the best free attractions that money can procure.

Among the shows are "Almee," "Trilly," the great "London Ghost Show," "Lunette," "Dog and Pony Circus," "An Indian Village," "Glass Palace," "Millie Christine," the living two-headed woman, "Old Plantation," "Roman Stadium," "Ferris Wheel," etc.; among the free acts are: "Dare Devil Carter," in his death-defying plunge for life from the apex of a tower 100 feet high into a tank containing only two feet of water; Mlle. Orocco, Queen of the Spiral Tower; the wonderful Keetch Family, aerialists supreme; a handsome pyrotechnical display every night; Olivette's Royal Italian Band will be heard in daily concerts.

Four big parades will take place during the week—Tuesday, June 14th, the Redmen's Parade, with over 1,000 Indians in costume; Thursday, June 16th, the Merchant's Parade, with every firm in Maysville represented with a beautifully decorated float; Friday, June 17th, Paughchaughsinque Day, and Saturday, June 18th, an Indian Trail, showing how pale-faces are captured and made Indians.

Taken all together, it will make the biggest week of festivity ever known in the history of Maysville. Now everybody get together and "boost" for this big event.

Mr. J. W. Ford has been appointed Road Overseer in the Minerva District vice Mack McKenzie, whose time expired.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Sherman Arm of East Second street.

Hundreds of visitors were at the Cemetery yesterday afternoon; and many of them must have been impressed by the numerous tottering headstones and neglected graves.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rees were down from Lexington to attend the funeral of Thomas Rees. It is regretted very much by Mrs. Worlock's friends she was too ill to be with her loved ones.

Gage 32 and falling

The Virginia will be down today from Pittsburgh.

The Virginia will be the Pittsburgh boat tomorrow night.

The Joe Walton is the flagship of the Pittsburgh coal fleet.

The Robert P. Gilham passed up with a big tow of empties for Kanawha operators.

It is said there are 171 shanty boats on the Ohio river between Huntington and Portsmouth.

Sunday the Ben Hur received ten tons of cotton yarn, the product of the Maysville Cotton Mill.

The Wash Henshell, after having her boilers repaired at Cincinnati, took a tow of empties to Pittsburgh.

The C. Crane Company of Cincinnati had 160,000 logs swept out of the Guyan river on the recent rise. Nearly 40,000 were caught before they reached the Queen City.

Shipments of coal from Pittsburgh are carried by B. D. Wood, six boats, two flats; Robert Jenkins, four boats; Fallie, six boats, two flats; Rival, four boats; Dave Wood, six boats, two flats; Harry Jones, four boats; Ranger, five boats, one barge, two flats.

WORMS

"I write to let you know how I appreciate your Cascarets. I commenced taking them last November and took two 'cascarets' boxes and passed a tape-worm 14 ft. long. Then I commenced taking them again and Wednesday, April 1st, I passed another tape-worm 24 ft. long and over a thousand small worms. Previous to my taking Cascarets I didn't know I had a tape-worm. I always had a small appetite."

A well constructed brick house will outlast one built of granite.

In at least one point Japan is ahead of any other country in the world—the cheapness of her postal service. In spite of the mountainous and irregular nature of the country, of the fact that there are only about 100 miles of railways in operation and other similar drawbacks, a letter can be sent from any point in the Empire to any other point for two sen—or considerably less than two cents.

A letter has been made public from former Civil Service Commissioner Foulke, in which it is made to appear that President Roosevelt is the greatest champion of civil service reform of all the Presidents. Only thirty-three suspensions of the rule, it is claimed, have been made, while other Presidents got around the law by changing it as occasion demanded, McKinley exempting 8,047 places in a single day.

The Father Mathew Total Abstinence Society yesterday had an increase of sixteen in its membership. Notable in the list was Father P. M. Jones of St. Patrick's Church, who was in the lead of the large class joining the Society.

At Louisville Saturday Judge Shackelford Miller rendered a decision favorable to the Central Stockyards Company in its litigation with the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. His construction is at variance with that given by the United States Supreme Court, but the latter applies to interstate traffic, whereas Judge Miller viewed the facts only as they affect traffic within the borders of the state.

The Diener House in Market street has for months been unoccupied. Saturday night Mr. Mart Crowell noticed a stranger forcing an entrance. Notifying Policeman Ryan he made an investigation, and though the bird had flown, he discovered that it was being made a resting place for night owls. Mrs. Diener had left several bedrooms furnished and these were affording sleeping quarters for homeless wanderers.

The Rev. Thomas Hanford preached a powerful sermon last evening at the M. E. Church, his subject being "A Wheel Within a Wheel." He left this morning for his home in Augusta.

In 1901, in a business transaction, Mr. Frank Devine sent a check calling for a round sum of money to a client in New York. Last week the check was cashed in St. Louis. That fellow was evidently a little on the absent-minded order, letting three years intervene before cashing it.

At the request of the deceased as well as that of the family the obsequies at the grave of Samuel Easton yesterday afternoon were performed by Mr. I. M. Lane, a life-long friend. Mr. Lane read a chapter in the Bible—a portion of the 15th chapter of the First Corinthians, after which he sang a hymn selected by Mr. Easton: "I Would Not Live Always," closing the services with prayer. The prayer of Mr. Easton was apparently answered, as he had often expressed a desire to pass away in a manner just as he did.

Mr. William Carver of Commerce street is seriously ill. He is a member of the G. A. R., the Amazon Fire Company and the P. O. S. of A. His condition is such as requires some one to sit up at night, and while the firemen have done well their part, it would be well for the other Orders to look after the wants of their afflicted brother.

HEIRS WANTED!

John A. Ritchie, born in 1829 or 1830 at or near Washington, Mason county, Ky., or Point Pleasant, Clermont county, O., is dead, leaving valuable property for which heirs are sought.

When a small boy his parents moved to Point Pleasant, where he attended school and grew to manhood. His known relatives are two sisters, named respectively Ann and Julia, who may now be living near Point Pleasant. Mr. Ritchie left Ohio in 1852.

His heirs should immediately write to James Broad, Placeville, California, giving full information as to their relationship and authorizing Broad to represent them in claiming the estate. Any information concerning Mr. Ritchie's heirs will be much appreciated by Mr. Broad.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

If Black's not shown no change will be seen.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

William Huffman and W. H. Pepper are after the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Schools in Bracken county.

Mr. Hawthorne Hill, formerly of this city, was among those who recently formed "The Kentucky Club" in New York City.

The work of clearing away the remains of the late Amphitheater of the late Fairgrounds will be finished in a few days, and then will begin the erection of a new manufacturing building for the Sphar Pressed Brickworks.

Personal

Rev. M. A. Banker returned this morning from Augusta.

Miss Anna Campbell is visiting relatives at Georgetown, O.

Meas. Charles D. Pearce and J. D. Dye left yesterday afternoon for Louisville.

Mr. Harry Schnelle of Lawrenceburg, Ind., spent Sunday here with his parents.

Mrs. Edward H. Kenner of Flemingsburg is visiting her mother, Mrs. John W. Power.

Mr. Clarence Stevens visited his sister, Mrs. Bettie Storer, and family at Mt. Olivet last week.

Mrs. William Hardin Lucas of Chicago is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Scott Osborne of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Easton came up from Covington to attend the funeral of the late Samuel Easton.

Mrs. Henry A. Power and daughter of Paris are visiting Mrs. John W. Power, Mr. Power returning home this morning.

Little Miss Alice Lloyd Adamson of Nashville is on a visit to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Lloyd, near Germantown.

Mr. A. P. Gooding and Mrs. S. M. Myall of Mayslick were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lydick of Cynthiana.

Miss Daisy Doll Sells of Marion, Ind., and Miss Tena Hotze of near Springdale, are charming guests of their cousins, Misses Sophia and Carlita Poth in Forest avenue.

The State Christian Endeavor Convention will be held at Glasgow May 6th to 8th.

Dr. P. G. Smoot left Saturday for New York to take a practitioners' course at the New York Homeopathic College. He will be absent three weeks.

Miss Marguerite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald of East Second, was the prize winner in The Courier-Journal's "Hidden Cities" contest.

Rev. Dr. Henry M. Scudder of Carlisle was elected a delegate from Ebenezer Presbytery, South, to the meeting of the General Assembly at Mobile, Ala.

NEWELL.

Mr. Jack Newell is stepping on eggs today. This morning at 2 o'clock Dr. Browning and the Stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newell in East Third street and left a cherub in the form of a beautiful girl baby.

It was stated the other day that a hen was on. The incubation took place Saturday, and for the past two days pedestrians passing the corner of Market and Second have had their attention attracted by the queer antics of one of Henry Linas's Shanghai hens perched on the coping of the Market street side of the wall of Mr. George W. Childs's Building.

That cow case "continues a little every day some." Saturday the case was before Judge Whitaker for a second hearing and Frank Williams, the owner, was fined $2 and costs, $5.90 in all—very light. The defendants murmured and being overruled was granted an appeal and the case carried up to the Circuit Court. By the time the defendant got through the Courts trying to establish the unconstitutionality of the city ordinance under which he was fined his purse will be much lighter and his wisdom proportionately increased.

In order that there might be no interruption in traversing the Kaiser's domain, Mr. S. Straus of this city wrote Congressman Kehoe asking him to secure from the Secretary of State a passport for his wife and son. Mr. Kehoe did so, and Saturday the red-tape document arrived, and with this guarantee of protection from Uncle Sam, she will be enabled to travel the German Empire free from molestation. Mrs. Straus and son will sail from New York June 4th on the Pretoria and on August 27 will leave Hamburg aboard the good ship Pennsylvania for the land of the free and the home of the brave.

The beautiful reception-room of the Opera-house was thrown open on Saturday afternoon by the Nomads for the annual meeting with which they close their term of study. The last play read by the Club this year was "As You Like It," and at their invitation Miss Kahn of Cincinnati entertained them and their guests by reading selections from it, the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," an extract from Kipling's "The Light That Failed," and several other equally pleasing selections. Miss Kahn has a very good voice, flexible and well controlled, and met with frequent and hearty encores. Mrs. C. M. Pfister sang two selections from the "As You Like It" music, "Blow, Blow, Thou Wintry Prince" and "Under the Greenwood Tree," and Misses Frances and Elizabeth Barbour added to the pleasure of the afternoon two delightful piano selections, "A Morris Dance" and "A Shepherd Dance" from Henry VIII. and a duet from the "Romeo and Juliet" music.
